Many members predict that it will be necessary for President-elect Wilson to call a special session.

OROZCO SAID TO BE SLAIN ON SEPT. 14TH

Death Kept Secret—American Is Said to Be Held for Ransom of $2500

EL PASO, Feb. 3.—A Chihuahua City (Mexico) dispatch to a local paper says: General Pascual Orozco, Jr., was slain the morning of September 14 during the fight of federalists and a band of Orozco's followers near Ojinaga when the rebels were defeated. The statement was made to an American prominently identified with industrial affairs in Chihuahua by a former member of Orozco's staff who took part in the engagement.

The federalists never knew that Orozco had perished, and even the United States officers later hunted him on the American side, as they believed he had crossed the line in flight with his father, who was arrested near Presidio by American troops. Orozco has never been seen since that day, and the supposition is that when he fell under fire that his body was seized by members of his band, who made way with it and buried it in some secluded spot.

SLEEPER GOING TO RE-GRADE PROPERTY

Commences Tomorrow With Personal Inspection of Several Districts of County

WOODWARD IS ONLY NEW FIELD DEPUTY

Office Will Receive No Benefit This Year From Proposed New Deputies

Tomorrow County Assessor James Sleeper will go forth in his automobile for a month's work re-grading assessments in Fullerton, Placentia, Olive and Orange and a part of Anaheim. Sleeper has maps of those sections prepared for this special work. His aim is to equalize assessments in these districts to bring them to conformity with assessments in other parts of the county.

The actual assessing of the county will not commence until March 3. On that day seven field deputies will begin their work. They will be on the job for four months. With one exception the men will be the same as last year. Perry Woodward has been appointed in the Fullerton district in place of R. S. Gregory, who resigned because he could not give the time this year. Woodward is an orange grower and is well acquainted with values in his section.

The others reappointed as field deputies are Ed. Waite and A. G. Finley, Santa Ana; A. L. Cotant, Tustin; A. C. Newell, Orange; W. H. Bentley, Westminster; J. J. Schneider, Anaheim.

Assessor Sleeper has been busy for some time making special investigations into property values that otherwise would be hard to reach conclusions upon in the rush of the assessment period.

The office will not receive any benefit this year from the proposed increase of the number of field deputies. The grand jury and the Republican County Central Committee both recommended that the force of field deputies be increased from seven to nine. Should the bill providing those deputies be passed, the help will not be available before August, by which time the 1913 assessment must be completed.

HIGH COURT FAVORS SHOE MACHINERY CO.

Company Controlling Machinery to 1300 Manufacturers in 34 States Declared Not a Trust

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The supreme court today handed down a decision to the effect that the United Shoe Machinery Company is not an unlawful monopoly in restraint of trade. It was charged that the company controls patented machinery leased to thirteen hundred manufacturers in thirty-four states.

Today's decision followed the indictment for criminal prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law of five officers of the United Shoe Machinery Co. on Sept. 19, 1911—President Sidney W. Winslow, of Orleans, Mass.; Vice President Edward P. Hurd, of Newton, Mass.; Vice President George W. Brown, of Newton; Vice President William Barbour of New York, and Director Elmer P. Howe of Boston.

District Judge Putnam dismissed the indictments at Boston on March 2, 1912, sustaining demurrers of the defendants. He held that under the "rule of reason" outlined by the supreme court in the Standard Oil and Tobacco trust cases the mere bigness of the company and operation of its patents did not constitute an unlawful monopoly or conspiracy, as defined by the Sherman law.

Two distinct charges were made against the defendants. One charged that, by merger of four formerly in-

LATIN DROPPED FROM DIPLOMAS IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Feb. 3.—The first German university to break with the prevailing custom of printing diplomas in Latin instead of in the language of the country is the technical university of Marburg. The technical high schools have made use of German for some time in the diploma of a doctor of engineering, but the language of the middle ages has been steadily adhered to by the university. Now that Marburg has made the innovation, it is believed that other universities will follow.

While the Democrats voted practically as a unit for the resolution the Republican vote was divided along unusual and unexpected lines. Senators Cummins of Iowa and Works of California were the only Progressives to support the resolution. Most of the others accepted the resolution as thrust at Colonel Roosevelt and voted against it on this account. Many regular Republicans who are unfriendly to Mr. Roosevelt voted with the insurgents against the resolutions.

Czar Ferdinand called a special session of the cabinet to ostensibly consider the Kaiser's advice. It is understood the other powers are cognizant of the Kaiser's note, and are in sympathy with his belief.

The German minister submitted the Kaiser's note, and news of its receipt quickly spread through the city. The impression is growing that Bulgaria will not resume fighting until one more chance of peace has been given.

TURKISH ENVOYS ORDERED TO STAY IN LONDON—TURKS NOT TO FIRE FIRST

CALIFORNIA PETROLEUM

Production Six Million Barrels Greater Than In Year Preceding

The production of petroleum in California in 1912 increased to 87 million barrels, from 81 million barrels in 1911, chiefly on account of large gushers developed in the Midway field and the number of good wells opened in La Habra valley, according to David T. Day of the United States Geological Survey. The production of the coast field declined markedly. A number of good producers in the Midway and other valley fields were ruined by an influx of water, which turned the oil to a valueless emulsion. Consumption increased so that the additions to stocks were not as great as was expected. The total stock at the end of 1911 was 42,240,118 barrels. This increased to 48,000,000 barrels at the end of 1912, a gain of less than 4,000,000 barrels, while production increased 6,000,000 barrels, showing that the consumption in 1912 was over 2,000,000 barrels greater than the production of 1911.

The features of particular interest during the year were the development of large wells at unusual depth in La Habra field, the continued development of large gushers in the valley fields, the decline in the old Santa Maria field, the extension of the Coal-linga territory by the development of good wells to the south, the increased utilization of natural gas including the enterprise for piping natural gas from the valley fields to Los Angeles, and the increased amount of gasoline obtained by compressing natural gas. Progress was also made, especially in the mid-way field, in cracking crude oils to obtain greater yields of gasoline. Among trade features of interest should be noticed the purchase of 10 million barrels of surplus crude from the Independent agency by the Union Oil Company, the withdrawal of the Standard Oil Company from the purchase of oils heavier than 18 degrees Baume, and the sale of the Union Oil Company to the General Petroleum Company.

Petroleum Reserves in California
During the course of the year two reserves of public lands were established to assure the navy a supply of oil in case of need. These reserves are in the Elk Hills and Buena Vista Hills, Kern County. The public lands within these areas have been withdrawn from all forms of entry during the last three years, but a special reservation for naval purposes had not hitherto been made.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

HE CAN STUDY
THE LANGUAGEBicycle Thief Sent to County Jail for Three Months May Apply His Spanish

Heinz Wessling, a German by birth, who speaks German, French and English, has a desire to learn Spanish. He has been studying it out of books. For the next three months he will be in the county jail, where undoubtedly he can hold frequent conversations with those who know Spanish, for the jail is well filled with Spanish-speaking people.

Wessling is a bicycle thief. He says that he came here on Jan. 30, and departed the same day. He took with him a bicycle belonging to Detlef Harnor, and rode that bicycle to San Pedro, where he was caught when he was offering it for sale. He told the officers that he got the bicycle here. The San Pedro officers called up City Marshal Jernigan, and it was found that the bicycle offered for sale at San Pedro was one stolen here. Officer Davenport went to San Pedro and returned with Wessling.

In justice's court this morning, Wessling in precise English told Justice Cox that he is a student of languages. "I speak three languages," said Wessling, a sturdy young man of about 25. "I am now devoting myself to the study of Spanish."

"You will have three months in the county jail," said the justice. "You will find that bicycle thieves are not popular around here."

This remark was made apropos of a statement from City Trustee McPhee who was present. McPhee had just said that he would like to have a baseball bat in his hands and find the man who stole his bicycle from the shed at his house last week.

College

Last Friday, H. J. Forgy addressed the law class of the Orange County Business College on the subject of Partnerships and Corporations. It was the second law lecture this popular attorney had prepared for the student body of this school, and anticipating its merit from the remembrance of what the first had been, the faculty and students knew beforehand that something good was in store for them. For more than an hour he held the class which filled the large assembly hall, in rapt attention and at the close of his address many questions were asked by students, which he answered in such a concise and satisfactory manner as to make clear to every student the exact meaning of the subjects under consideration.

Advanced students of the shorthand department reported the address and did splendid work for their first attempt at verbatim reporting. At the close of the period President McCormac thanked the speaker on behalf of the student body for the helpfulness of the lecture and expressed the hope that they might have the pleasure of listening to him again on other occasions.

tion Want a Schoolhouse
of Their Own

Residents of the Katella district, southwest of Anaheim, have petitioned the Board of Supervisors for the establishment of a new school district to be formed from a part of the Anaheim school district and to be known as the Katella district. The petition has been approved by County Superintendent of Schools Mitchell and has been filed with the Board of Supervisors. Parents of ninety-one children of school age have signed the petition. That there is a large school population in embryo is shown by the fact that there are also ninety-one children in the district, not yet old enough to go to school. The district is in a section that has developed rapidly in the last five or six years.

Petition Filed
L. H. Lucas, guardian of Mrs. Nina B. Croft, has petitioned the superior court for an order restoring Mrs. Croft to competency. The woman was sent to the insane asylum at Patton a few months ago, and has since been discharged as cured.

OBITUARY

MARY ANN GILBERT
Mrs. Mary Ann Gilbert was born near Bristol, England, July 19, 1829. She passed to her eternal reward, at the home of her son-in-law, Rev. W. T. Ardle, at Westminster, Cal., on Wednesday, Jan. 29, 1913, aged 83 years, 6 months and 10 days.

She was first married in England. Two children were born of this union. Her husband and one child passed away in the home land. The daughter, Julia, a lovely and accomplished girl, died at Newport, Ky., where for a year she had taught in the schools. At her decease the city mourned and added their sorrow to that of the mother bereft.

On Feb. 19, 1855, she was married to Henry A. Gilbert, at Cincinnati, Ohio. Six children were born, four of whom are living: Mrs. L. M. Wardle, Westminster, Cal.; Isaac Gilbert of Lockland, Ohio; Angie J. and Amos W., who reside in Los Angeles, Cal. Five grandchildren and other relatives survive.

For nine years Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert lived in Illinois, thence they moved to Newport, Ky., where they remained five years; thence to Lockland, Ohio, the home of Mr. Gilbert's parents, where they resided 24 years. Nineteen years ago Mrs. Gilbert was compelled to come to Los Angeles for her health, where, excepting intervals of residence with Mrs. Wardle, she has lived. Mr. Gilbert came to Los Angeles two years after the coming of his wife, but he passed away after only two days' residence there.

Mrs. Gilbert was all her life a religious woman. Reared under the revival influences of the Methodist church at that date, she later, with her husband, found in Newport, a band of Christians who searched the Word for themselves. By them the husband and wife were baptized. Later they united with the Fourth Baptist church of Covington, Ky., under Dr. Geo. Pentecost. Removing to Lockland, their membership was transferred to the Lockland Baptist church, where they remained honored and earnest workers during their long residence there. Coming alone to Los Angeles Mrs. Gilbert found friends among the Seventh Day Adventists, with whose membership she united, and to whose enterprises she gave generously.

She has lived a long life, a full life, a busy life. The sweet remembrance of a Godly mother's influence rests on the heads and hearts of those who survive. Already there has been reunion up yonder, but the fellowship of her Savior is best of

J. B. WINE HAS FLOCK
OF A-NO. 1 LAYERS

With the approach of warm weather, or spring, it seems that the hens are beginning to lay more. Every body who has chickens would rather that they would lay the heaviest when the price is the highest, yet eggs have to be taken as they come.

For this spring the first and what looks as though it may be one of the best January performances of a flock of hens was reported by Mr. J. B. Wine of 925 West Third street. With a flock of eight Rhode Island Reds he has received during the month of January 132 eggs. This makes an average of four and nearly three-fourths eggs per day.

During the month, Mr. Wine has kept track each day on the calendar, and the most he gathered on any day was seven. Mr. Wine said that as far as he remembered, the best record last year was ninety eggs from nine hens.

The record lot of hens which belong to Mr. Wine were fed on a diet of wheat, bran and a brand mash, also green grass and scraps from the table.

JOHN PAUL JONES

The final burial of the body of John Paul Jones, America's greatest naval hero, at Annapolis, Md., following the expense and infinite pains taken to recover and identify the body, has been a fine expression of patriotism and idealism.

At first many capable space writers made good money out of the improbabilities of the case. That so famous a man should have been lying in a forgotten cemetery in Paris, and that after 113 years his body could be positively identified, did seem unlikely. But since Gen. Horace Porter published in 1905 the complete report of his elaborate research, there has scarce been a murmur of dissent. The old records showed that the body was placed in the Paris cemetery for foreign Protestants, now covered with squalid buildings. The archives showed that the pastor who preached the funeral sermon over Jones buried his flock in that cemetery. No tract of any other cemetery for foreign Protestants in use at that time could be found.

Jones was buried in a leaden coffin, furnished by the charity of a French official. Five bodies buried in leaden coffins were found in this cemetery, four easily identified. The fifth was unmarked, save that the cap containing the hair had an initial, which looked at one way was a "J," the other way a "P." The body was excellently preserved in alcohol, and the likeness to the bust of Jones was remarkable. The measurements corresponded exactly. The autopsy showed a serious lesion of one lung, corresponding with the fact that two years before death Jones had pneumonia, permanently injuring a lung. The organs showed nephritis, corresponding with Jones's symptoms at the time of his death. The famous scientists who examined the body pronounced it that of Jones.

For years the old cemetery was used as a burial place for horses and dogs and for night soil and laundry refuse. Ungrateful America not merely did not keep Jones's grave green, it did not keep it clean,—until today.

A REPORTERS' UNION

It was a journalistic happening out of the ordinary recently in New York, when a newspaper writers' union was formed of men working for four large Hebrew journals. The standard established for membership was the very curious one of ability to write three columns briefer type in five hours.

It seems never to have occurred to the creators of this association that writing an editorial penetrating the subtle motives of the human heart, and slapping up a story about a dog fight or the weather, call for differing grades of ability and various amounts of time.

Complaint is often made that the salaries paid in the newspaper business are low for the grade of intelligence that is required. The idea of unionizing newspaper writers has often been broached, but never successfully accomplished.

The reason is that the public accepts so much slipshod work without question. It may sneer at the ill-spelled and ungrammatical newspaper. But when did good orthography or syntax ever increase the sale by the newsboys?

There is, however, a growing spirit of craftsmanship in the newspaper profession, a love for the work for its own sake, an increasing tendency to draw brains and highly educated young men. The more the public buys carefully written, well edited, substantial journals, the more it raises the tone of the profession.

Where newspapers are held up to these high standards, by a refusal of the public to buy the other kind, the newspapers have to pay good wages in order to attract and hold high-grade men. In the long run this is good business, as a substantial newspaper is a far better advertising medium.

Every time the public buys a newspaper written and edited in an irresponsible and slipshod manner, it sanctions the work of ill-paid men who are really incompetent for the serious responsibilities of journalistic work.

Only a woman can speak of "last year's styles" at the present time and really mean what she says.

Gov. Wilson seems determined to let the cabinet situation go into extra innings.

An optimist is a man who lays by a little sunshine for a rainy day.

DOMESTIC SERVICE

Clearly the constantly increasing troubles of families that hire servants are not, merely a question of money. The average servant, when the cost of her board and room is figured, gets more pay than the average woman teacher.

Probably it is not so much a question of hours. The housemaid of today is lord of the kitchen, and it is with hesitation and pallor that the mistress ventures to suggest amendments. Most housemaids get many afternoons out, and altogether they probably work shorter hours than mill girls.

It looks to a mere man as if the essential reason why housework is so unattractive may lie in the question of social adjustments. Somehow the girl is made to feel that she accepts social inferiority when she exchanges the factory loom for the dish pan. But in many instances if she were treated as a social equal she would be presumptuous.

People of wealth are paying steadily increasing prices for domestic service. They will always be able to get it, by paying housemaids about the price that is received by a college graduate who has studied in Europe, for her work as a high school teacher.

It looks as if people who cannot pay according to these lofty standards would have to make household service more attractive in other ways. They will have to reduce the hours expected of servants until they are distinctly below those required of factory workers.

Probably, too, they will have to give servants more attractive quarters. The time has gone by when the maids will be satisfied to live in cubby holes under the roof unprovided with means of heating. The modern servant will probably require a bit of a sitting room off the kitchen, where she can have her friends and eat her meals in peace and comfort. It may sound absurd to some. But it will perhaps be the cheapest way in the long run.

But, aside from a Piewickian point of view, perhaps the greatest cause for complaint about domestic service difficulties is due to the shortcomings of the mistress of the house. To be gifted of God with really good "common sense"—which is the most uncommon kind—and a really kind heart, coupled with the kind of dignity that all will recognize and respect because it is founded on strength of character; to have tact and poise; to be really independent through her own efficiency; to have democratic disregard for conventions and yet be so thoroughly a lady as to leave not even the most uncultured person in doubt of the fact for a moment;—well if mistresses were more perfect, perhaps maids would be less imperfect.

Among the higher rewards of literature might be cited the considerable sums paid for the Archibald letters.

A Pujo committee subpoena seems to be very frequently mistaken for an invitation to go on an excursion.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Santa Barbara may be the scene of an anti-saloon campaign in the near future. The Anti-Saloon League is studying the situation and the next city election may see the question submitted to a vote. The saloon interests are very strong in Santa Barbara, and a prohibition ordinance was voted down a few years ago. The temperance sentiment, however, is growing and the foes of the saloon believe that with the women voting they have a good fighting chance to win.

The formal transfer of the property of the Southern California Mountain Water Company to the city of San Diego took place at 12 o'clock, noon, Saturday. The deed to 11,000 acres of land and the system by which water is supplied to residents of San Diego, was turned over to Mayor J. E. Wadhams, representing the city, and $2,500,000 in bonds voted last spring was given in exchange therefor. San Diego gets its municipal water system a little before Riverside.

It seems to be practically settled that Fresno will have a "wet and dry" vote at the coming city election in May; the only unsettled question is whether the ordinance will be submitted under the state local option law or the provisions of the city charter. The measure proposed will permit hotels to serve wine and beer with meals, following the lines of the Riverside and Pasadena ordinances.

Various commercial bodies of the county of Imperial have united in a county chamber of commerce that will work for the promotion of the interests of the entire valley. Imperial and Brawley are not represented in the new organization at the outset, but it is hoped that these towns will come in so that the entire county may be united in a publicity and promotion campaign.

San Bernardino will dedicate its new Y. M. C. A. building on February 14, and at about the same time the contract will be let for the new association building at Santa Barbara. Building campaigns had been planned for Pomona and Santa Ana this year, but the "late unpleasantness" will probably result in delaying action in those two cities.

The San Luis Rey mission is to be lighted with electricity. That improvement would certainly startle Father Junipero Serra if he could come back and visit the scenes of his labors in California.

A GOOD WORD FOR LAWYERS

Lawyers are like newspaper men and doctors and preachers—good, bad and indifferent. But the human family seems especially fond of cussing lawyers. Once in a while we get provoked with them and stick a worded dagger into them. So to even up things and give the other side we are going to reproduce below an editorial from the pen of William Marion Reedy who knows how to sling the words together:

The lawyer is good and bad, like the rest of us. We don't remember what he does for the poor and weak, when we are hammering him for what he does for the rich and strong. He makes many a long hard fight for no fee at all, and he fights as hard for nothing as he does for a fancy fee. We forget what the lawyer does for rights when we think of what he does for privilege. The best off-hand thing I can think of to say concerning the lawyer is that he must be pretty fine and good in the main, by token of what a despicable creature he can become when he falls from grace. I don't think that, upon the whole, the legal profession is more debased by contemporary commercialism than is any other profession, including my own. There are lawyers who champion palpable inequities, but there are equally great lawyers who bear inequity in its darkest dens. To the trust lawyer bent on seducing courts and corrupting legislatures we may oppose an Undermeyer and a Brandeis. There is a great deal of popular denunciation of lawyers, but if you'll think for a minute you will remember that lawyers are more trusted with the secrets and the affairs of men and women than are the men of any other profession. They are more trusted to-day than priests and preachers. And few there are, considering the number there are, who betray the confidence reposed in them. Lawyers in the great majority of instances are hard workers and close students. They are not as a class reactionaries. Lawyers are leaders in every one of the many current efforts for reform. They are leading in the struggle even for the reform of their own profession. Lawyers are, of course, identified with the institution of property, but it is men who have property who can pay fees, and we have not yet reached the stage at which we are prepared to maintain that property has no rights. Lawyers are often conservative, but this is inevitable. The written law is fixed and lawyers abide by its fixity. If now and then lawyers make the worse appear the better cause, who does not? The lawyer's business is controversy, and controversy may be theoretically a means of ascertaining the truth, but practically it is a contest in which opposing sides strive to win. One's own lawyer is no better nor worse than his opponent's lawyer. It is said that the great success in the law today is attainable only by the lawyer who will tell his client how to evade the law. That is inevitable, too, in a time of myriad statutes, and we are forced to concede the point that even when the lawyer advises a magnate how to evade the law he does it on a theory of that magnate's rights. So with the condemnation of lawyers for technicalities. The technicality may in the end permit some wrong, but also it may prevent a wrong and conserve a right. Even Mr. Pierpont Morgan may have some rights—I mean rights other than those he has taken away from the rest of us as a community. In fine, when we come to talk or write about lawyers as about other folks, we are too much inclined to generalize. We are apt to think ill of the man whose position is opposed to our own on a matter of either public or private interest. There are bad men who are lawyers. But, in these days, if you'll stretch those fellows you will find that they are rather business men than lawyers. The great body of the profession is not eminently successful and it is not bad. Lawyers are, unfortunately, held in disesteem mostly because they are for the other fellow against us. We don't get mad at our own lawyer, except when he loses our case.

SANFORD'S ANTI-SINGLE TERM RESOLUTION PASSES

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 3.—Senator Sanford's resolution opposing the single six-year presidential term proposed by Senator Works passed the Senate, 23 to 10. The resolution did not refer to Senator Works personally. In his speech supporting the resolution, Sanford sarcastically referred to Colonel Roosevelt as "the Big Lull Moose, who is too brilliant for contemplation by the naked eye, but must be looked at through a smoked glass."

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 3.—A bill making the directors of a corporation personally responsible when laws prohibiting combinations in restraint of trade are violated, was introduced today by Senator Cannetti. The bill defines what trusts are illegal. The state is given the right to revoke the offending corporation's charter.

USES HOTEL FIRE AS ARGUMENT FOR BILL FOR BOILER TENDERS' EXAM

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 3.—Assemblyman McDonald today used the St. Nicholas Hotel fire here yesterday resulting in four deaths, as an argument for his bill to compel all boiler tenders to pass examinations and secure a license, as the fire of yesterday is believed to have resulted from a defective furnace. Assemblyman Kingsley said he will introduce a bill to compel furnace rooms to be separated from the remainder of the building by a fireproof partition. The bill is aimed to force property owners to safeguard their tenants.

New Tax Bill Signed

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 3.—Gov. Hiram W. Johnson signed the new state tax bill Saturday. The bill, as introduced in the senate by Chairman Newton W. Thompson of the committee on revenue and taxation, and in the assembly by Chairman Sutherland of Fresno of the like committee, jumps the tax rate on the gross income of railroads, gas and electric companies, car companies and insurance companies. Banks and express companies stay where they are.

The additional revenue produced will amount to $2,000,000 annually, according to estimates. It probably will be reduced by the repeal of the corporation license tax, which brings the state $800,000 annually.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 3.—Announcement was made in the senate that Lieut. Gov. Wallace is ill at his hotel and will be unable to preside in the senate until after the recess.

RECIPROCITY DAY

Women's Clubs of Orange County Assemble in Splendid Meeting at Anaheim

A meeting of great importance to the interest of woman's clubs in Orange County took place last Saturday when the Anaheim Ebell Club acted as hosts to the clubs of the county. The meeting was attended by large delegations of representative club women. The meeting at the Mother Colony was a source of great pleasure to the Santa Ana Woman's Club, especially to the officers and the committee composed of Mrs. Anna Gale, Mrs. B. Wiley and Mrs. J. J. Fyfe who have labored so faithfully to establish "Reciprocity Day," and also to bring about the county federation of all study clubs.

The clubs of Orange County are keenly alive to the fact that united strength is the most powerful, hence the assembling of over 200 club women at the Mother Colony Saturday. Among the clubs of Santa Ana represented were the Santa Ana Ebell, its president, Mrs. S. Nau, giving the club's report; the Civica Club, represented by its president, Mrs. A. J. Lawton, and the Woman's Club, Mrs. Anna Gale, president, speaking for it. Twelve or fifteen clubs from over the county were represented, each making a report through a representative of work being accomplished.

A splendid musical program was presented by the hostess organization, the Ebell Club of Anaheim. After the program, the members talked on the various lines of women's work, all agreeing in the belief that these meetings of the women's clubs will result in a better understanding of humanity's need and a greater knowledge of the laws governing us; and that through the influence of these meetings will come a betterment along social, educational and civic lines. The meeting adjourned with the expectation of great things to be done through the co-operation of woman's clubs Orange County.

Refreshments of coffee and cake were served by the entertaining club before the departure of the guests, and the third Club Reciprocity day to be observed in Orange County ended happily.

P-T. Association

The Parent-Teacher's Association of Spurgeon school will meet on Tuesday, Feb. 4, at 3 o'clock, in the auditorium of the school. A program will be given consisting of orchestra music, readings and songs. Each mother is requested to bring a question for the question box. A good attendance is desired.

Return From Six Weeks' Visit
Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rowland and little daughter returned yesterday from a delightful visit of six weeks in the middle west, their time being spent in Kansas City and different points in Iowa, visiting with relatives and friends.

They report a most delightful time and but little discomfort from cold weather. Nevertheless they are glad to get back to good old California with its unequalled climate, its pretty bungalow and hospitable people. Mr. T. H. Rowland, father of Mr. Rowland, accompanied the travellers on their return and will make a visit of indefinite length here.

Choral Rehearsal
The Choral Society meets tonight at the First Congregational Church to rehearse, and special emphasis is laid on the request that all members be present at this rehearsal.

GUN CLUB BANQUET

Losing Marksmen Hosts to the Others—Oysters and Fun Order of Hour

The Rifle Club held a banquet in the Dragon balcony last night at which fun and jollity ruled unrestrained. The givers of the banquet were the members of the losers in recent shoots and the hosts seemed the merriest of the bunch.

Unique decorations prevailed. In the center of the table were stacked a trio of guns and underneath the weapons was a miniature forest from which miniature deer were curiously regarding the merry riflemen. The place cards represented targets.

Covers were laid for twenty-two and after the splendid oyster supper had been disposed of, a contest in which table favors were used, was indulged, the winners to be the guests at another supper. The game was lost to the same men who were hosts last night. Consequently they will entertain with another feast at some time in the future.

Pretty Birthday Party

Miss Helen Campbell happily entertained a dozen of her young friends at her home, 501 East Walnut street, Saturday afternoon in celebration of her twelfth birthday.

Music and games whiled the afternoon away and at its close delectable refreshments of ice cream, cake, candy and fruit punch were served in the dining room. A beautiful birthday cake, flaming with a dozen lighted candles, was used as a centerpiece and the place cards, which were little cupid, conveyed an early suggestion of St. Valentine's day.

The young guests departed wishing Miss Helen many years in which to celebrate the return of the happy day.

Economics Club Number Two

The second section of the household Economics department of the Ebell Club will meet with Mrs. A. W. Rutan at her French street home on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The subject will be the pickling, preserving and canning of vegetables. All members are asked to take note book and pencil with them.

Clubs to Attend

Newport News: All preparations have been completed by the Ebell Club for their Reciprocity Day, Thursday, February 6, which will be held in the South Coast Yacht Club house, and acceptances have been received from seven of the clubs in Orange county. The club expects to have as its guest, Mrs. Ella Westland, president of the southern district, who has written she will be present on that day.

WEEK-END PARTIES

Miss Pauline McElree Hostess With Two Pretty Events at Ross Street Home

Pauline McElree was hostess at two pleasant week-end parties at her Ross street home. On Friday evening about a score of schoolmates enjoyed her hospitality as only such vivacious youngsters as they could with a full round of games, contests, music and fun.

The contests, of Mrs. McElree's own invention, were heartily enjoyed, especially one of matching syllables. Tom Willis proved to be the successful cartoonist among the crowd and received a handsome framed picture for his skill.

The living room and den were tastefully decorated in white carnations and asparagus fern while amilax and Cecil Bruner roses added to the charm of the dining room, where delicious mixed-brick ice cream, cake and punch were served, Margaret McElree and Naomi Lucas assisting the hostess in her duties.

On Saturday afternoon the members of the Sunday school class of the First M. E. Church of which Pauline is a member, met at her home to enjoy their regular monthly meeting. After a short business session almost every girl present responded with a musical selection.

The class presented a dainty shirt-waist set to the president, Miss Mildred Ramsey, who will shortly leave Santa Ana.

A Bible contest was enjoyed and a general good social time followed with the serving of light refreshments. Those belonging to the class are Alice Saunby, Sarah Snow, Mildred Ramsey, Mildred Serance, Iva Lulu Webster, Ethel Klatt, Mabel Dukes, Nellie Irvine, Stella Anderson, Mildred Hoxie, Pauline McElree and the class teacher, Mrs. Webster.

The Cravings of Children

In the Woods Hutchinson Magazine Dr. Frederic Hutchinson begins a new department called "Health and Horse-Power." On the subject of children's appetites he says in part:

"Every one of the cravings which we do not infrequently see in the average child, for sugar, or green apples, or butter, or cake; yes, even for dirt and shoe-leather, are simply due to his having been starved of some element in the unbalanced and inadequate ration on which we have compelled him to live, whether he liked it or not."

"When the child is allowed to grow up as a few children, thank heaven, are now beginning to be allowed to grow up, with freedom to indulge his own natural instincts upon a wide variety of food, it is promptly found that the things which the child really likes to eat are meat and milk and butter and sugar and fruit and ice cream and the clean crusts of bread and hard crackers; in other words, exactly the things that he most needs and must have in his daily business of growing up."

"When he has been fed and 'indulged' like this the child can be trusted with a candy-box on the table all day long and an unlocked pantry. Starches and cereals are all very well to grow guinea-pigs and horned cattle, but they are not at all the things needed to raise human beings on."

"If your child has developed an abnormal craving for anything, or even a marked tendency to gorge himself to his injury upon any particular food, it is because you have starved him, and you ought to be ashamed of yourself instead of scolding him."

REBUILDING BRISK AT OCEAN PARK

Fraser Bathhouse, Five Immense Hotels and Five Business Blocks Under Way

OCEAN PARK, Feb. 3.—Rebuilding has begun on the powerhouse for the Ocean Park bathhouse, which is to be reopened together with the Fraser pier May 15. The powerhouse stands on Marine street, near Speedway, and is fronted by two-story business block of brick. Reconstruction of the plant and repairs on the bathhouse mean an investment of about $15,000, Mr. Fraser announces, and also means that the restoration of the great drawing power of this beach center is under way in earnest.

Building activity, which now hems in the powerhouse, will be double in the next 30 days. It is predicted. Foundations are nearly complete for both the Marine hotel, which is G. M. Jones' property and the Stinemans and Cramer hotel of six stories, at Ocean Front and Marine street. The Allen hotel building is five stories high, at Pier avenue and Speedway, and its 100 rooms will be ready for occupants early this spring. The King George hotel, at Rose avenue and Ocean Front, is preparing to throw open its doors this month. This is a white brick building of six stories and 100 rooms.

The Busch hotel of eight stories has been announced for the site formerly occupied by the Decatur hotel and the Fraser building.

Five two and three-story business blocks are near completion on the Ocean Front, the Merchants and Commercial bank building on Marine street, Speedway, has been begun and the west wall of an addition to the First National bank building is nearly finished.

Arrangements will be made to use one of the unfinished high school buildings for grammar school classes temporarily.

Hill's Corner

We started in last fall with the largest stock of corrugated iron that we ever carried, but the sales have been greater than expected and we have been compelled to buy at later and higher prices in order to meet the demands.

We are compelled to make a higher price than that made last fall, but we are now inside the Los Angeles price and we expect to supply all demands.

Our stock of STOVES and HARDWARE is equal to all demand.

We are making IRRIGATING PIPE and expect to keep at it.

NOBODY CAN TELL IF YOU DARKEN GRAY, FADED HAIR WITH SAGE TEA

Druggist Says When Mixed With Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching, and falling hair.

Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." (Dis-avoiding a lot of muss. Some druggists make their own, but it isn't nearly so nice as "Wyeth's."

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell, because it does it so naturally; so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever.

Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur." It surely helps folks appear years younger. Rowley Drug Co.—Advertisement.

EAGLE PATROL OF ORANGE WON CONTEST ON SATURDAY

Eagle Patrol, Orange, 175 points.
First Methodist Church Patrol, Santa Ana, 82 points.

The practical side of the Boy Scout movement was demonstrated when the first of a series of Orange county Scout patrol contests was held on Lincoln Athletic Field last Saturday afternoon.

Two patrols took part in the contest, Eagle Patrol of Orange, six boys, of which Professor L. A. Durfee is scout master, and a patrol of two boys from the First Methodist church, Santa Ana, in charge of Clifford Hughes. The contest commenced at 11 a. m. and was witnessed by quite a number of interested boys and young men.

The scouts were required to cook their own dinners, which was interesting, the Orange patrol cooking four dinners satisfactorily, as compared with the Santa Ana boys' three. After this contest the reciting of the Scout laws was heard, most of the boys giving correct recitations. The new scouts showed keen interest and enthusiasm in the work, which gave encouragement to Scout Commissioner Hamilton, who is bending every effort to conduct the movement in an efficient manner for the benefit of the boys of the city.

In the knot-tying contest, each scout was required to tie as many as possible, and the results were indeed creditable.

When a boy takes the scout oath and is made a full fledged scout, he promises to do a good turn for some one every day, and must not let the opportunity pass, so on Saturday, as part of the contest the scouts handed in a list of good turns performed by them during the month.

This is an example of the objects taught the young scouts, and is alone worth membership in a patrol. It teaches them to be self-reliant, manly, and to help their fellow students or anyone else in every way possible, and to properly mould their characters.

Following is printed a few of the good turns reported by the scouts on Saturday:

"I went down town for an old lady."

"Caught a runaway horse."

"Carried injured boy into drug store."

"Prevented a boy from falling off of a fence."

"Helped an Olive mill man reload his wagon when part of load fell off."

"Helped lower classmen with studies."

"I stopped two little boys fighting."

"Got work for a young man."

"Fixed boy's bicycle tire."

"Helped lady pull weeds from yard."

The foregoing gives some idea of what may be accomplished in the lives of the young boys of a community by having them do good in this simple way.

Two athletic stunts were held, the pull-up and a potato race. W. A. Jones of Tustin brought a small crowd of Tustin boys out to the contest to see the nature of the work, as they are considering organizing a patrol. They went away much impressed and were keenly interested in the work, and as a result will no doubt, in the near future perfect the projected organization.

The February study program for the next contest, which is to be held on March 1, somewhere in the woods near El Modena, includes the following: Stars, Scout laws, compass, list of good turns, push-up, broad jumps, stand and run, and cooking. Mr. Durfee was very proud of the showing made by his patrol on Saturday, and was indeed glad to see the banner go to Orange for the first contest.

Pasturage Land in Riverside For Beets

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 3.—That lands in the Santa Ana river bottom formerly used only for pasturage are as good as beet lands in Orange selling for $350 the acre is the declaration of George Gould and H. J. Small of the Santa Ana Co-operative Sugar company, after making tests and examinations of local soils. They declared that there are from 2000 to 5000 acres of unused lands in the Riverside valley admirably adapted to sugar beet growing and promised to aid growers with seed and advice at all points of the production of the crop.

Experimental planting will be made by S. C. Evans, L. V. W. Brown, J. T. Hamner and other large property owners of Riverside and several hundred acres have already been signed up. Representatives of three sugar beet factories were here last week for the purpose of creating interest in the proposition and getting land signed up for beet crops.

FOUND DIAMOND SOLD BY CARLOCK FOR $100

Oscar Carlock, charged with burglary, relented after thinking his situation over, and Saturday pointed out to Sheriff Rudbeck and Constable Heard the places where he had disposed of a diamond and watch case stolen by him from F. T. Turk of Olinde. The diamond was located at the Kussel Loan Association, Los Angeles, where Carlock had sold the sparkler, worth $300, for $100. The watch case was found at 4223 Spring street, Los Angeles. Carlock traded the case for another one, in which he put the works of Turk's watch and pawned it for $3.

MINNESOTA CLUB PICNIC FEB. 12

The Minnesota Gopher Club, being the Minnesota State organization for California, will hold its Annual Mid-winter Picnic at East Lake Park, Feb. 12, 1913. If it rains or is stormy the picnic will be held at the same place on Saturday, Feb. 15th.

It will be the usual state basket picnic, with hot coffee served on the grounds. Parties are requested to bring well filled baskets.

An excellent program will be rendered consisting of instrumental and vocal music and speeches by prominent Minnesotans residing or sojourning in California. The Minnesota state picnics have always been a great success and the committee in charge hopes to have the largest and most enthusiastic meeting ever held by the organization.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF THE DELUGE

Jesus and the Apostles, History and Science, Support the Genesis Record.

The Deluge Philosophically Attended by History and Geology—Pastor Russell Defends Biblical Account—Higher Critics Held Responsible For Approaching Anarchy.

Brooklyn, February 2.—Pastor Russell today addressed the Brooklyn Congregation now generally known as "The Bible Students." His text was, "As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be in the days of the Son of Man."—Luke 17:26. The address opened with a scathing arraignment of Higher Critics. Our richly endowed colleges, he declared, are undermining faith in the Bible, which means faith in a personal God, and substituting a scant recognition of the laws of Nature, devoid of sympathy or mercy. Practically every minister graduated during the last twelve years has been a believer in human evolution. Disbelief in the Bible account of man's creation in God's image, means disbelief in a fall from that image, disbelief in the need of redemption and reconciliation, and disbelief in the necessity for the Resurrection to be accomplished by Messiah's Kingdom.

Pastor Russell said that he does not question the sincerity of Higher Critics. His own experiences along the same line forty years ago give him great sympathy for them. He insisted, however, that it is not honorable for those who have abandoned the creeds to pose before the public as supporters of those creeds, and to draw salaries and receive honorary titles for undermining the faith of the people, while posing as representatives of Christ and the Bible. He declared such a course dishonest and dishonorable.

The Deluge Corroborated by History. The speaker held that Higher Critics approach every Bible topic from the standpoint of unbelief, and declared that if they would reverse their position and seek for corroborations of the Bible, their success would be better. These critics, exploring the ruins of Babylon, found clay tablets rudely picturing the ark and containing a few words about a general deluge. Instead of saying that this confirms the Bible thought, they declare that the Israelites in Babylon drew their story of the Deluge from Babylonian legends. How silly to suppose that the beautiful Genesis account came from a few words recorded by Babylonians!

Pastor Russell promised that next Sunday he would take up the moral reasons justifying the destruction of humanity with the Deluge. Through his sermons, printed weekly in hundreds of newspapers, those desiring might continue with him the study of the subject.

Geology Confirms the Mosaic Deluge. The great difficulty heretofore has been to harmonize the story of the Deluge with the shape of the earth. This has now been met. The Vallian theory respecting creation shows that when the earth was in a molten state, it threw off minerals in the form of gases, which on cooling, separated more or less, according to density, and must have constituted great rings or bands about the earth, similar to those of Saturn and Jupiter.

As the earth cooled, these rings acquired separate motions, because of their distance, but gravitated slowly toward the earth, the atmosphere preventing immediate precipitation. Gradually each would spread out as a great canopy, gravitating toward the poles, because of centrifugal force. Finally the accumulation at the poles would overcome the resistance of the atmosphere, and cause precipitation.

Many such deluges occurred before man was created, and from these came mineral deposits. The last of these rings consisted of pure water, and spread out as a canopy when man was created.

Frozen In Solid Ice. Recently, in Siberia, a mammoth was found with grass between its teeth, frozen solid in thick ice. Similarly, a deer was found in polar regions with undigested grass in its stomach. Evidently the catastrophe which produced these results was sudden—such as would occur, according to the Vallian theory, said the Pastor.

The breaking of the canopy sent a great flood of water suddenly from the poles to the equator. Then came the glacial period, when icebergs floating down from polar regions cut deep valleys, etc.

As the cold at the poles was extreme, so was the heat at the equator. Ocean currents soon set in, which have gradually modified the arctic regions and brought the polar ice as great icebergs toward the equator.

We naturally inquire, Where was the ark? How was it kept safe? Faith answers that God undoubtedly protected it. And now Professor Wright tells us that the region about Ararat contains unusually deep alluvial deposits, as if it had been a settling basin for the muddy waters of long ago.

PIONEER PHYSICIAN OF SANTA ANA DEAD

Dr. J. M. Lacy at the Age of 75
Passed Away at His Home
Yesterday Morning

Yesterday morning at 6 o'clock Dr. J. M. Lacy passed away at his residence, 801 East Fourth street. For several years Dr. Lacy had been ill and unable to continue his practice as a physician. His final illness dated from the day before Christmas. Dr. Lacy was a pioneer citizen and physician, for years one of the county's most prominent and active men. He came here in 1879. All of the old-timers knew him and respected and admired him. He was a generous, kind hearted man, successful in his profession, and a leader in many enterprises. As a young man he was a surgeon in the Confederate army. After an active life in Arkansas and Oklahoma, he came to this state and settled in Santa Ana, where he has since lived. He leaves a widow, one son, Mark Lacy, five daughters, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Vance, Mrs. Vaughan, Miss Margaret Lacy and Miss Laura Lacy, and two brothers, ex-Sheriff Theo. Lacy and ex-Under-Sheriff Alec. Lacy. His wife Dr. Lacy lived until the 22nd of this month he would have been 76 years of age. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from Smith's chapel.

Santa Ana Painless Dentists, 102 1/2 East Fourth St. Main 253.

PIONEER MERCHANT IS LAID TO REST

Samuel Hill Buried Today With Impressive Rites of the Masonic Order

The funeral of Samuel Hill, pioneer citizen and business man of Santa Ana, was held this forenoon at 10 o'clock at Smith & Son's Chapel, the service being conducted by Rev. John H. Cooper of Los Angeles, former pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city. Mrs. Frank Harris sang three old hymns, all favorites of the late Mr. Hill, as follows: "How Firm a Foundation," "Rock of Ages" and "Over Yonder."

Floral offerings were many and beautiful, coming from friends here and elsewhere, Masonic bodies and wholesale hardware companies in Los Angeles sending flowers and telegrams of sympathy to the bereaved family of widow and son. Representatives of these organizations and of the Scottish Rites Masons of Los Angeles were present at the funeral. A large concourse of friends from Santa Ana and nearby places was in attendance.

The Masons of Santa Ana conducted the burial rites, using the impressive ceremonies of the order.

The pall bearers were from the employees of S. Hill & Son, the men oldest in the service being selected. These were Messrs. A. McKee, Leigh Galloway, Arthur Hassler, John Hoxsie, Ed Bradley and Alton Alderman. Samuel Hill was born Feb. 13, 1837, in Saco, Maine, and died Jan. 30, 1913, in Santa Ana, Calif., after an illness of two weeks.

SIXTH AND MAIN STREETS

His earlier years were spent in his native state with the exception of five years spent in Boston learning the tinners' and plumbers' trade, after which he conducted a business in this line for eleven years in Buxton, Maine. In 1862 he was married to Miss Lucy A. Leavitt and to this union one son was born.

In 1870 the family moved to Blue Rapids, Kansas, where Mr. Hill was again in the hardware and tinware business and where they resided till 1885, when they came to California in hopes of benefiting Mr. Hill's health. That this hope was realized is shown by the fact that he lived here 27 years and built up a business from a very small concern to the largest business in his line in Orange County.

He was a Christian man of strong convictions and never afraid to uphold the right and condemn the wrong; always ready to help every good cause and a friend to any one in need.

He is survived by an invalid widow, one son, George Pliny Hill, one grandson, Albert, four grand-daughters, Viola, Nellie, Lucy and little Phillis, who mourn his loss but are rich in the memory of what he has been to them.

He was a Mason from early manhood and has held positions of honor and trust much of the time since.
